Horse Riding across the Countryside of the Algarve

This is the perfect activity for those who are fond of horses and nature. The tours are 3 hours long and before we start riding we have to prepare the horses. This is very useful and part of the experience and also a way for you to get familiar with the horse.

Itinerario ampliado

This activity is something that anyone can do, even the less experienced. The horses are tame, gentle and our guide provides the less experienced riders all the basic instructions such as proper placement of feet in the stirrups, the posture among other important notions.

In case it's appropriate the guide accompanies the group by foot. This way of assistance makes safety guaranteed to each participant. The route is planned according to the different riders in order for everyone to enjoy the best out of this activity. This ride explores the countryside of Vale Formoso, the streams of Almargem and Fonte Salgada.

At some point we ride along the paths used by the workers in the saltpans exploring different and unique landscapes in the Algarve Are you fond of horses and nature? Take a pleasant ride in the countryside by horse and breathe in the fresh air.
