WHALE AND DOLPHIN WATCHING IN MADEIRA

All year round it is possible to find a large variety of whale and dolphins in Madeira. Reason why we strongly recommend a whale and dolphin watching trip with the experts; a specialized company, with the ideal vessels and marine biologists on board.

Before each trip there is a short power-point presentation that fully prepares you to enjoy this experience to the maximum!

The Experience

This trip begins on earth, with a brief introductory film about dolphins and whales in Madeira. Then we proceed to the adventure at sea in specialized vessels to meet the whales and dolphins.

Throughout this journey a marine biologist will inform and answer questions about the sightings. In turn, ashore, there are guards in constant observation to guide the vessels toward the cetaceans, thus ensuring the sighting of marine mammals.
