Guided Tours in Barcelona THREE TEMPTATIONS: GAUDÍ

A Tour through Gaudí's eccentric life and a discovery of his most magical buildings around Barcelona. Marvel at his work ending at his unfinished masterpiece, the Sagrada Família.

- What happened to Gaudí's plans for Sagrada Família?
- What do Gaudí, Star Wars and lollipops have in common?
- Was he a genius or a madman?

Find out the answers and more on our Gaudí Tour. A great way to introduce yourself to the genius of the architect while admiring the "modernisme" buildings of the Eixample. We combine walking and two short metro trips around Barcelona to give you an insight to the genius of his architecture.

THREE TEMPTATIONS: GAUDÍ

ITINERARY

Art, cava and chocolate combined: enjoy three of the most tempting pleasures in life during a day-tour around Barcelona enjoying the personalized atmosphere of a private group.

The tour begins with a visit to a living example of Catalan modernism in architecture: Colonia Güell, the industrial colony Mr. Eusebi Güell built according to the new trends in architecture and design, commissioning, among others, Antonio Gaudí for the project. Following the famous advice "Antonio, do as you want", Gaudí was in charge of the church. Although unfinished (that's why it is called the Crypt) it's the culmination of all his architectural innovations.

Next we will go to Freixenet wine cellar to enjoy a 90 minutes guided tour along the history of cava making: tradition and innovation combined with cool and sparkling cava tasting.

After the visit a typical Catalan lunch will be ready for us at Sant Sadurni d'Anoia. And to round up the meal we will indulge in a guided visit to the Chocolate Experience, an educative yet delicious introduction to the fascinating world of ancient chocolate making, letting ourselves be pampered by chocolate tasting.

Then we will return to Barcelona where we will arrive around 5:30 pm
