Ficha viaje

Guided Tour Offers in Barcelona MEDIEVAL COSTA BRAVA

Old world charm along Spain's Costa Brava Just a small step off of Catalonia's beaten track you'll find the Baix Empordà. The area is replete with glittering beaches, lush rolling hills, sumptuous gastronomy and a mild Mediterranean climate. It makes for a peaceful day trip from bustling Barcelona and is just a short hop over the French border but it has plenty to keep you occupied for a longer stay too.

TIPS: Comfortable shoes: Although the tour is not particularly challenging comfortable shoes are advised. Beach: Bathing suit, sun protection and a hat are advised in order to better enjoy the breaks at beaches and coves.

MEDIEVAL COSTA BRAVA

ITINERARY

Enjoy a unique one-day guided tour from Barcelona to Costa Brava and back. For 11 hours our local experts will share with you the secrets of an incredible land in the intimate atmosphere of a private group: unspoiled hidings, amazing history, useful tips and curious anecdotes. We have designed an itinerary both comprehensive and unique but also allowing time for leisure and relaxation.

The tour begins at Calella de Palafrugell, a picturesque coastal village peppered with small coves and coloured rowboats. After visiting the village we will walk along the Ronda Promenade that follows the seaside to El Golfet, an unspoiled hidden cove surrounded by luxuriant vegetation of unbeatable beauty. At this beach we will have free time to enjoy its pristine waters.

Then we will set off for L'Estartit, a place of reference for scuba diving and snorkelling enthusiasts. Here we will have two hours for lunch at one of the surrounding fish and seafood restaurants before embarking for an hour and a half on a glass-bottomed catamaran to the Natural Reserve of the Medas Islands. During the trip we will observe the seabed and sail along the paradise coves of Macizo del Montgrí until reaching the astonishing Roca Foradada.

In the afternoon we will set off for Pals, a medieval historical monumental ensemble consisting of the castle, the village and the fortified walls. Towering over Pals there is the Torre de las Horas, a Romanesque tower built between 11th and 13th Centuries. We will spend one hour traversing the gothic quarters and narrow and steep alleys of this medieval village.

From Pals we will set out on our way back to Barcelona where we will say goodbye at 7:30 pm.
