Itinerario ampliado

Full description

- Discover the magnificent Algarve region with this full day tour through some of the main historical points of the area.
- First, get to know the emblematic town of Silves, the old Moorish Capital of Algarve. Visit the medieval castle and be surprised by its History!
- Climb the Monchique Mountains to Fóia - the highest point of the Algarve. Monchique's attractions include a historic town center, views from the two peaks of Fóia and Picota, hiking, bird watching, and biking. Perfect for the Nature lovers!
- To continue the tour, we will visit the beautiful town of Lagos. Lagos is one of the most visited cities in the Algarve and Portugal, due to its variety of tourist-friendly beaches, rock formations (Ponta da Piedade), bars, restaurants, and hotels, renowned for its vibrant summer nightlife and parties. The town was the frequent home of Henry the Navigator.
- Afterward, and to finalize this amazing full-day tour, we continue on to Cape St. Vincent, the southwestern most point of continental Europe, known as "the End of the World". It is close to Sagres, the so-called "Costa Vicentina" (Vincentine Coast).
